clothing, make up & hairstyle guide

Avoid clothing with bright colours & bold patterns. These tend to draw the viewer's eye away from the person.

Simple designs work best. Lighter colours work best; pastel shades are even more flattering.

Colour coordination of the clothing within a family group will tend to help create successful pictures.

Avoid makeup that is too 'heavy', a light 'day' makeup usually works best. Men, it is a good idea to shave shortly before the photography session, as this will help to remove a 'five o'clock shadow'.

Brand new hairstyles often result in disappointing portrait results. It is better to use a 'tried and tested hairstyle'.

Men, avoid having your hair cut the day of the session, as the hair ends tend to stick out.

N.B. Ownership of the image files and original Copyright License will remain with Stephen Jones Photography.

The sitting fee is to be paid prior to, or at the photography session.

All prices include G.S.T. Prices Valid from 1 May 2010

It is wise to discuss your full requirements, arrangements and the style of photography to be used on your Portrait with Stephen well before the photography session.
